

Northern Alaska VR Military Training Routes

For information Only – Not to be used for Navigation

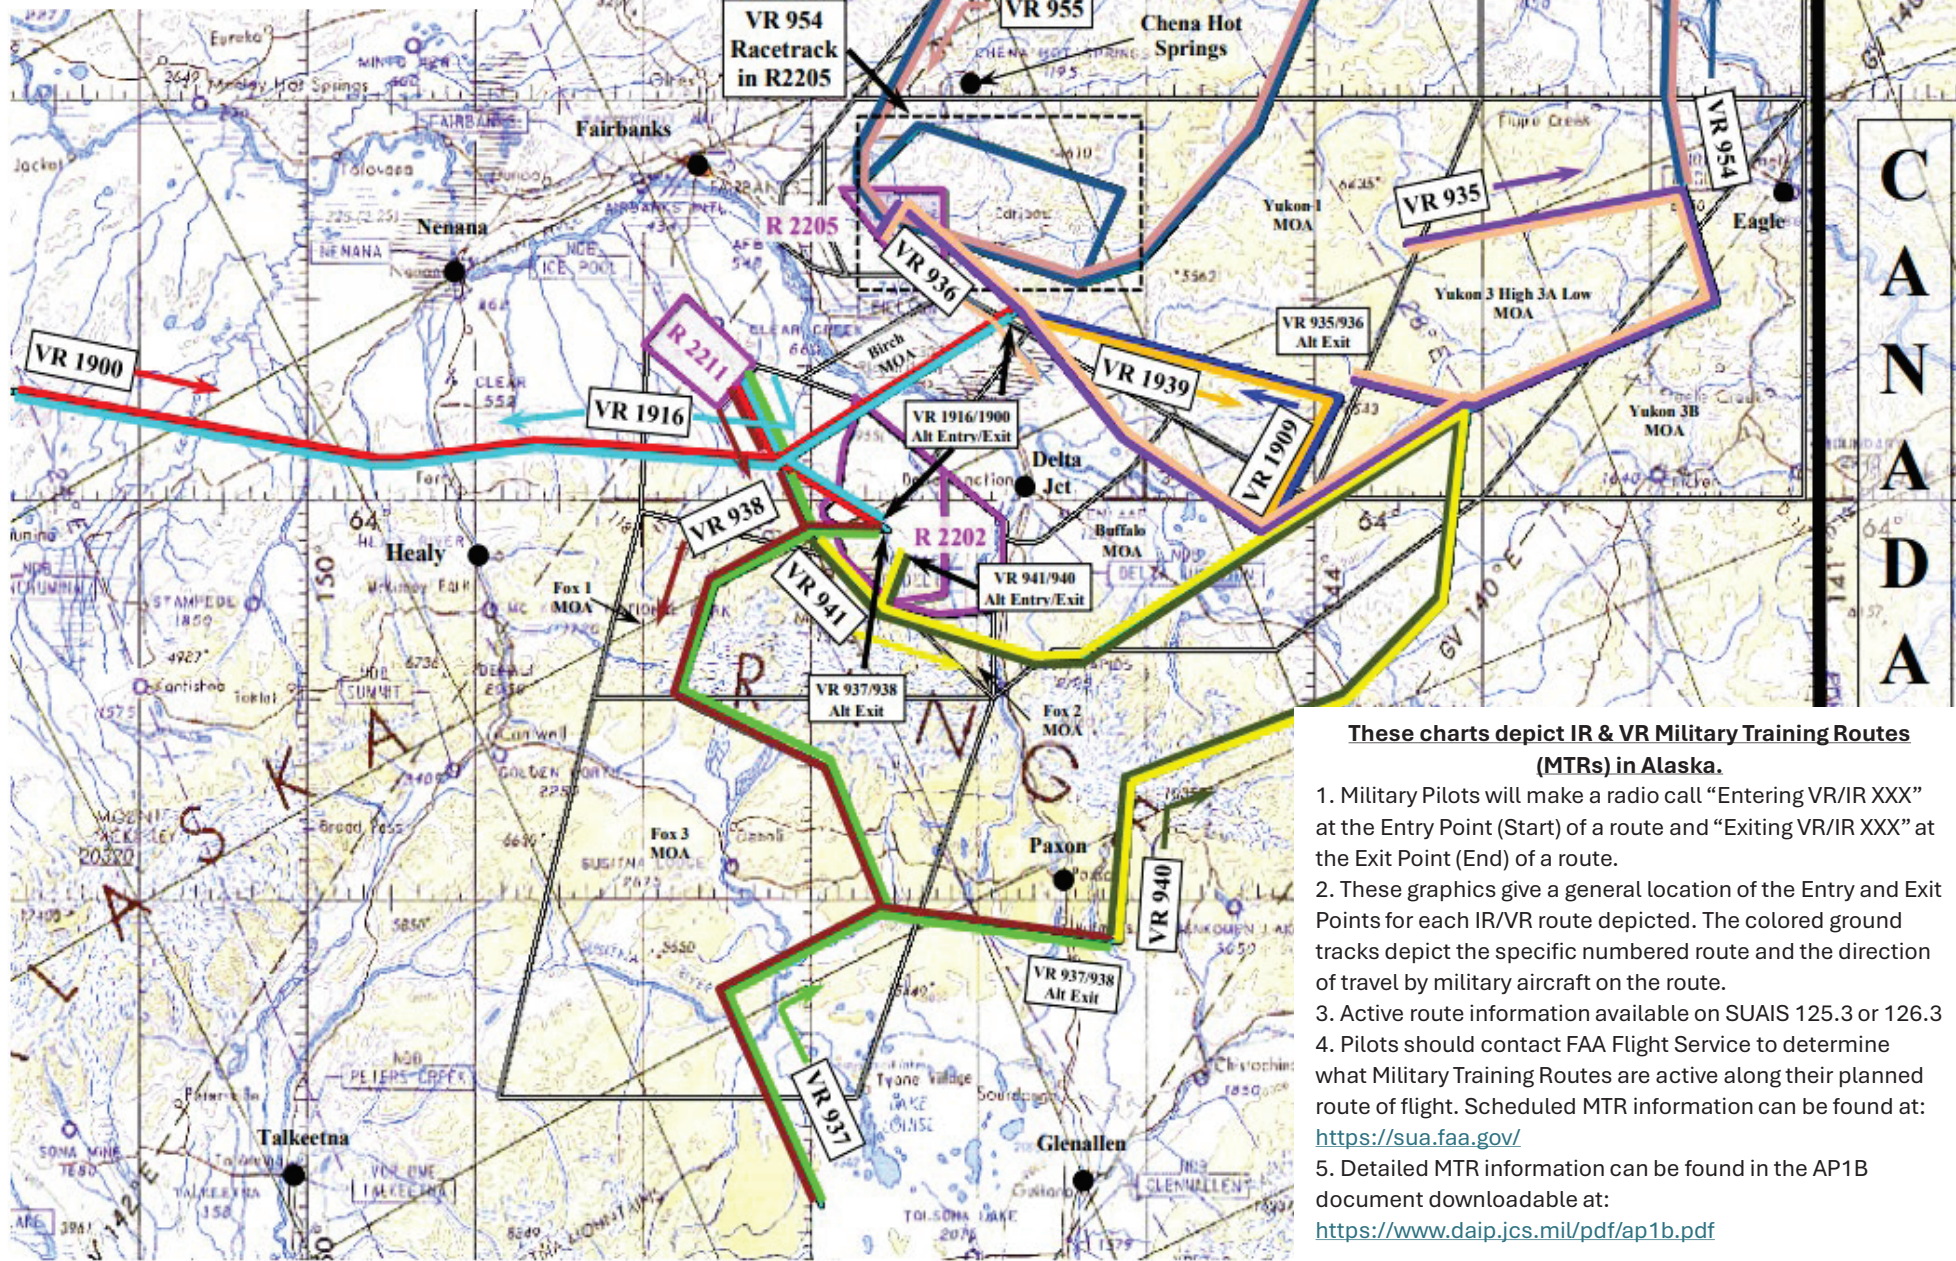

Alaska Military IR & VR ROUTE
Information Kneeboard

April 2025

11 AF Airspace Management

(907) 377-5921/5922

ALASKAMILITARYAIRSPACE@US.AF.MIL

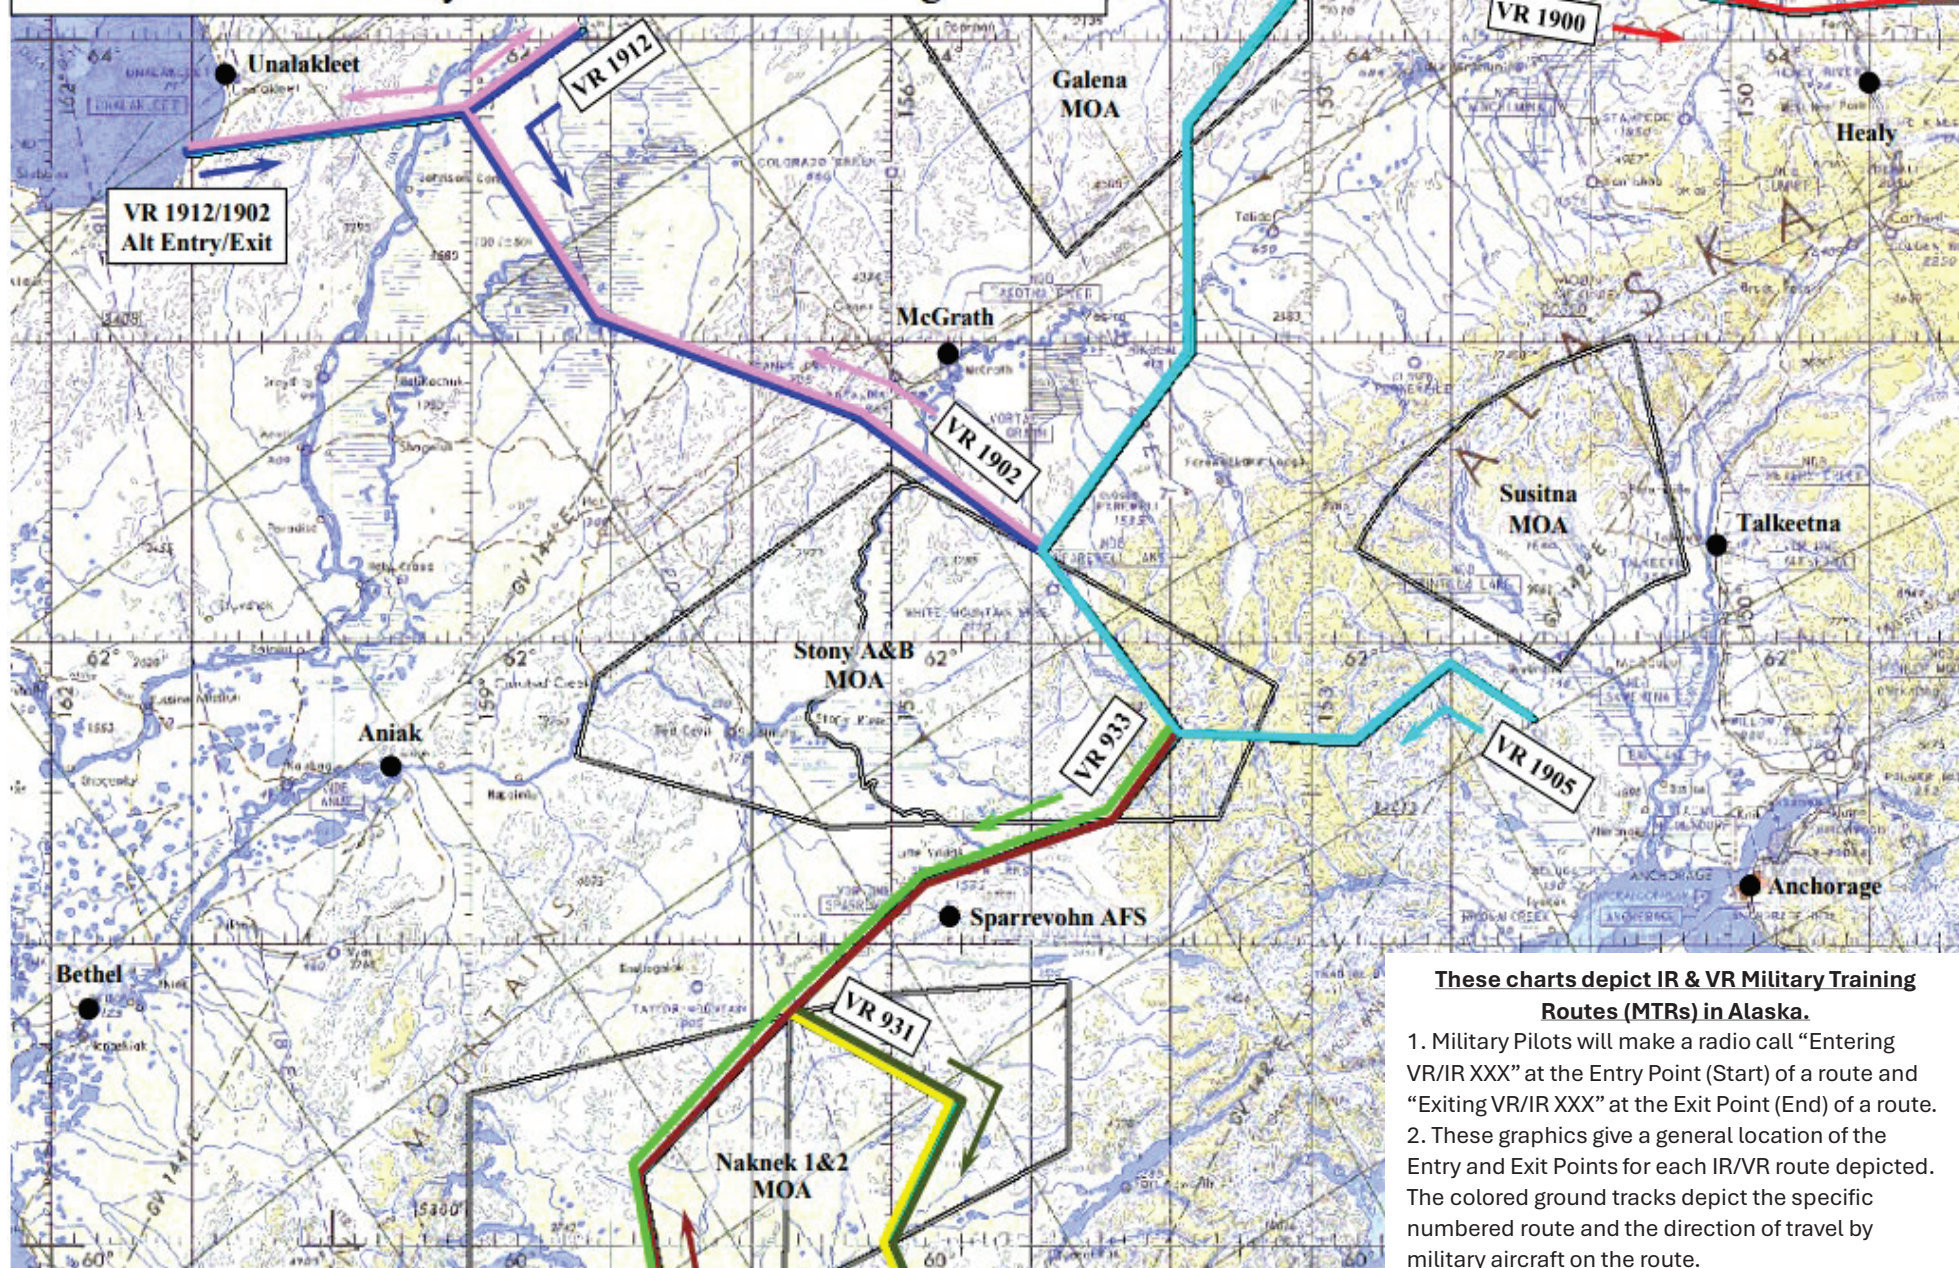

These charts depict IR & VR Military Training Routes (MTRs) in Alaska.

1. Military Pilots will make a radio call "Entering VR/IR XXX" at the Entry Point (Start) of a route and "Exiting VR/IR XXX" at the Exit Point (End) of a route.
2. These graphics give a general location of the Entry and Exit Points for each IR/VR route depicted. The colored ground tracks depict the specific numbered route and the direction of travel by military aircraft on the route.
3. Active route information available on SUAIS 125.3 or 126.3
4. Pilots should contact FAA Flight Service to determine what Military Training Routes are active along their planned route of flight. Scheduled MTR information can be found at: <https://sua.faa.gov/>
5. Detailed MTR information can be found in the AP1B document downloadable at: <https://www.daip.jcs.mil/pdf/ap1b.pdf>

Western Alaska VR Military Training Routes

For information Only – Not to be used for Navigation

These charts depict IR & VR Military Training Routes (MTRs) in Alaska.

1. Military Pilots will make a radio call "Entering VR/IR XXX" at the Entry Point (Start) of a route and "Exiting VR/IR XXX" at the Exit Point (End) of a route.
2. These graphics give a general location of the Entry and Exit Points for each IR/VR route depicted. The colored ground tracks depict the specific numbered route and the direction of travel by military aircraft on the route.
3. Pilots should contact FAA Flight Service to determine what Military Training Routes are active along their planned route of flight. Scheduled MTR information can be found at: <https://sua.faa.gov/>
4. Detailed MTR information can be found in the AP1B document downloadable at: <https://www.daip.jcs.mil/pdf/ap1b.pdf>

Alaska Military IR & VR ROUTE
Information Kneeboard

April 2025

11 AF Airspace Management

(907) 377-5921/5922

ALASKAMILITARYAIRSPACE@US.AF.MIL